

Embroidering Resistance

EMBROIDERING RESISTANCE

MEMORIES OF SURVIVAL & US EMPIRE IN EL SALVADOR

THURS. OCTOBER 27, 2022
10:00 - 11:15AM EST

TERESA CRUZ MIRANDA
POPULAR EDUCATOR
MUSEO DE LA PALABRA Y LA IMAGEN

UMassAmherst

College of Humanities & Fine Arts
History

Dear Friends of MASCP,

We would like to invite you to an event with Teresa Cruz Miranda from the Museo del Imagen y la Palabra in San Salvador: Embroidering Resistance- Memories of Survival and the U.S. Empire in El Salvador. As an educator, Teresa "uses embroidery to promote collective healing and preserve the historical memory of rural communities who organized revolution."

This event is Presented by the UMass Amherst Public History Program and UMass Amherst History Department Feinberg Series.

Thursday, October 27, 2022, at 9am-10:15am CDT

LEARN MORE AND REGISTER

Also on October 27...

Bitter Sugar: The Problem with Sugarcane Monoculture in El Salvador

OCTOBER 27 | 6PM (El Salvador)

A conversation with members of Bitter Sugar, a campaign building a movement led by the affected, advocates and activists raising awareness about the socio-environmental impact of sugarcane monoculture in El Salvador.

Their slogan, ¡Alternative Agriculture is Possible, Without Monocultures, Without Agrochemicals!

You can join this conversation via Zoom by pre-registering for an access code @ <https://bit.ly/3TI21G5> or watch it live on Facebook.

SAVE THE DATE!

Once again, MASCP will be selling beautiful embroidered items and other artesanía from El Salvador at the Fair Trade Holiday Festival on December 3, 2022. The Festival will be at the Monona Terrace Convention Center, 1 John Nolan Drive in Madison, WI, from 8 AM-3 PM.

The Farmer's Market will also be held at Monona Terrace that day so you can buy locally produced food items and fairly traded handcrafts from around the world in the same place.

If you'd like to join the fun of meeting great people, telling them about the Embroidery Coop in Arcatao and selling beautiful items, let us know! We'd love your help setting up before the Festival, selling during the day, bringing lunch to our team and packing up at the end of the day.

CONTACT US if you'd like to volunteer. We'd be grateful for your interest and help. Hope to see you there!

P.O. Box 132 Madison, WI
53701

Share on social

www.mascp.org