

CELEBRATE ST. OSCAR ROMERO!

Dear Friends of MASCP,

On Sunday, October 14, Monseñor Oscar Romero, martyr of El Salvador and promoter of the well-being of the poor, will be canonized in Rome by Pope Francis. Join us in honoring Saint Oscar Romero with prayer, music, Salvadoran food, and a display of 14 photographs by Madison photographer Roland Torres of the "Stations of the Struggle" that are painted on the walls of the church in Arcatao.

Sunday, October 14, 2-4 PM
Catholic Multicultural Center, 1862 Beld Street

The Fourth Station:
Jesus meets his mother.

Archbishop Oscar Arnulfo Romero
Archbishop Romero visits Arcatao.

The Meaning of Memory and War Today

Rosa Rivera, head of the Historical Committee in Arcatao, recently visited Madison on her way back from participating in a lecture series in Amherst, MA on "Lessons Learned from Revolution." Listen to her interview on WORT with Jan Miyasaki and MASCP member Marco Aguirre.

Listen Here >>

Join US for Holiday Shopping at Madison's Fair Trade Fairs!

MASCP will be selling embroidered aprons, dresses, tea cozies, pillow cases, pottery and painted wooden boxes and Christmas ornaments....all from El Salvador.

Orchard Ridge United Church of Christ
November 18, 9 AM-3 PM

Monona Terrace
December 1, 8 AM-3 PM

DONATE

Share on social

P.O. Box 132 Madison, WI 53701

www.mascp.org →